THE PROBLEM

Nigeria's healthcare system is fragmented

Patients are forced to choose between systems, travel for diagnostics, and pay out of pocket for care that should be available at home.

Fragmented care

Traditional and conventional medicine operate in silos.

Limited diagnostics

Advanced imaging is concentrated in Lagos and Abuja.

Unregulated supply

70–80% use traditional medicine, yet quality is inconsistent.

Medical brain drain

65%+ of qualified health workers are seeking opportunities abroad.

$549M

healthcare spent abroad in the first 9 months of 2025

<10%

of Nigerians enrolled in any health insurance scheme

70–75%

of health expenditure financed out of pocket

The unlock: one institution that connects the full care journey—clinically, digitally, and operationally.

THE SOLUTION

One patient. One journey. One partner.

EHMCARE is building Nigeria's first fully integrated healthcare institution—bringing care, diagnostics, education, technology, and product manufacturing under one corporate umbrella.

Clinical services

TCCM—acupuncture, cupping, herbal remedies—alongside surgery, emergency care, and maternal health.

Diagnostics

MRI, CT, X-ray, ultrasound, and full laboratory services—closer to underserved patients.

EHMcare Academy

Diploma and certificate programs across TCCM, diagnostics, and healthcare technology.

EHConnect

EHR, telemedicine, AI health assistant, AR diagnostic tools, and a patient mobile app.

Manufacturing

GMP-certified production of herbal medicines, supplements, and natural health products.

Integrated by design. Regulated for trust. Scalable across Nigeria.

One ecosystem. Multiple growth curves.

$5B+

Combined addressable opportunity across integrated healthcare, diagnostics, education, and digital health in Nigeria alone.

Nigeria’s 237.5M population creates an urgent quality and clinical trust gap.

Strategic insight: Nigeria has over 10,000 medicinal plant species; professionalisation and regulation can convert usage into trusted supply.

TIMING

Why now: the window is open

Three forces are converging to make integrated healthcare the next defining opportunity in Nigeria.

01 / POLICY

Traditional medicine is moving toward standards

Federal certification and standardisation efforts—supported by WHO priorities—are creating an investable path for professionalised TCCM.

02 / DIGITAL

Health access is becoming platform-enabled

Nigeria's digital health market is projected to grow from $1.5B in 2025 to $4.636B by 2032, with users scaling from 31.8M to 86.7M.

03 / DEMAND

Patients are looking for care closer to home

Medical-tourism dynamics and rising domestic capability point to a returning demand for trusted, comprehensive local care.

The first mover to integrate care, diagnostics, technology, and training can define the category.

BUSINESS MODEL

Diversified revenue, reinforced by cross-referrals

| Revenue stream | What it includes | Margin |
|---|---|---|
| Clinical services | Consultations, treatments, procedures | 60–70% |
| Diagnostics | MRI, CT, X-ray, laboratory | 50–65% |
| Academy | Diploma and certificate programs | 70–80% |
| EHConnect | EHR, telemedicine, software subscriptions | 80–90% |
| Products | Herbal medicines, supplements, oils | 40–50% |

Year 2 unit economics

#80K
average revenue per patient

#8K
customer acquisition cost

#320K
lifetime value (40:1 LTV:CAC ratio)

Flywheel: care creates referrals into diagnostics; academy graduates become future practitioners.
